Poetry.

THE GROWTH OF LOVE.

BY MISS JEWSBURY.

Give to the garden rose her praise,
A queen among the flowers !
But culturing skill, and many days,
Of sunshine and of showers,
She claims alike of man and heaven ;
And blooms not, if they are not given.

The patriarch monarch of the glade,
The oak—to him praise render !
But many a human life must fade,
And many a scene of splendour—
Cities themselves grow old with time
Before he reach and pass his prime.

Then say, why in that wondrous thing,
The soul, such power should be,
In bloom, and joy, and strength to spring,
Sooner than flower or tree ?
Why needs there not a length of years
To fashion all its hopes and fears ?

I know not—'tis enough I ween
For simple hearts to know,
That seven bright days of summer sheen
Can oft-times make Love grow—
That Love than roses quicker thrives,
Yet longer than the oak survives.

HE PASSED.

BY T. H. BAYLY, ESQ.

He pass'd as if he knew me not !
Unconscious I was near ;
And can he then so soon forget
A being once so dear !
No—through composure ill assum'd
I mark the blush of shame—
I saw him tremble when he heard
Another breathe my name.

I ask not now a lover's smile,
Those eyes are sunk and dim.
But in their ruin they possess
An eloquence for him.
Though others pass me, from his heart
More sympathy I claim :
When I am gone—perchance he 'll weep
Whene'er he hears my name.

THE EPISTLE,

From the Yearly Meeting, held in London, by adjournments, from the 18th of the Fifth Month, to the 27th of the same inclusive, 1831.

To the Quarterly and Monthly Meetings of Friends in Great-Britain, Ireland, and elsewhere.

Dear Friends,—Feeling our hearts warmed with love towards our brethren and sisters, wherever situated, we do not hesitate again to salute you ; and to express our desire and prayer, that grace and peace may be multiplied unto you from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

We have again to rejoice in the condescension of the Great Head of the Church ; for, while we have found abundant cause for humiliation, in the deficiencies which continue to prevail amongst us, we may gratefully acknowledge that He has not cast off his unworthy children. He has enabled us to conduct the business which has come before us in love and harmony, and has graciously bestowed upon us a solemn and refreshing sense of his mercy. We have received an Epistle from our dear brethren in Ireland, and one from each of the Yearly Meetings of our friends in North America ; and have been comforted by these renewed tokens of Christian affection. The Epistles from our friends in America afford an evidence of their continued zeal for the cause of Christ : yet we deeply sympathize with them in the trials to which they are still exposed, and desire to commend them to the grace and goodness of God.

While thus assembled in large numbers, we have been led to feel for those of our dear friends who are scattered in solitary places, and who are accustomed to meet for the purpose of worship in very small companies. May such be encouraged to a persevering diligence in the performance of this Christian duty. It is consoling to remember, that God is every where present to bless his faithful children, and that our holy Redeemer manifests himself by his spirit, to the two or the three who are gathered together in his name. Many valuable members of our society have been trained for usefulness, by the Divine hand, in very secluded situations : and the consistent example even of a solitary individual may be of great use in promoting the cause of truth and righteousness.—As such endeavor to maintain their religious principles faithfully, others may in the end gather round them.

Our well-known practice of assembling for worship at an appointed time during the week, besides the first day, has again been a subject of religious exercise amongst us. Thus to leave our outward concerns, in humble dependence upon God, and, in solemn silence, to wait together upon Him, we believe to be acceptable to our Heavenly Father, and eminently calculated to promote our religious edification. We desire to encourage our dear friends every where, to a diligent attendance of these meetings : the neglect of them is an affecting indication of a luke warm mind : and there is surely great danger that we shall hinder our religious progress, if we refuse to avail ourselves of so valuable a privilege.

We would remind our beloved brethren, that unless we are pressing forward towards Zion, the city of the living God, we may soon lose our remaining strength and become immersed in the spirit of the world. How earnestly will they who are seeking to make progress in the spiritual course, ask and wait for that holy aid which constitutes the life and strength of the renewed soul. It was by a constant reference to the Spirit of Christ in the heart, that our early predecessors were enabled to support their Christian testimonies under severe persecution ; as well as to maintain that standard of Christian principle by which they obtained, from those who injured them, so high a character for strict veracity and integrity in all their transactions. We entreat you, dear friends, to consider whether the Lord is not requiring of us, individually, a fuller surrender of the natural will, a greater degree of decision in giving up all for Christ, and a more ardent pursuit of heavenly things. " If ye then be risen with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ sitteth on the right hand of God."

A just view and full belief of the astonishing fact, that God sent his only begotten Son into the world to save us, is we believe suited, beyond all other things, under the power of the Holy Spirit, to humble us in a sense of our own corruption, and to excite in our minds fervent gratitude towards the Author of all good. Under the influence of this gratitude, may we all devote ourselves without reserve to the service of our Redeemer ! When love for Christ has expelled from our hearts the love of the world, we shall no longer go halting on our way in a condition of weakness, but shall experience growth in grace, and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

We have been once more led to take a view of the responsibility which attaches to parents and heads of families. To train up our children, servants, and those under our care, both by example and precept, in a religious life and conversation, consistent with our Christian profession, is a duty of a very serious nature. We beseech our dear friends to reflect on its vast importance, and in order to perform it rightly, to press after true godliness. Never shall we be found faithful stewards in this respect, until we are ourselves men of prayer, weaned from the spirit of the world, and walking in the reverent fear of God our Father.

We have, on the present occasion, deeply felt the loss of some of our beloved friends, lately removed by death, whose labors were greatly esteemed amongst us, and who, we humbly believe, have entered into their rest. Our hearts are also turned in Christian sympathy to those who, by their increasing infirmities, are prevented from giving us their company. We highly value that travail of soul which our elder brethren and sisters in the Lord (now that their day of active service is nearly over) are maintaining for the good of the church, and its preservation in Christian purity ; we honor them for their works' sake.—We tenderly desire that now, in the evening of life, they may partake of the rich consolations which are in Christ Jesus ; and that, being preserved in faith and patience unto the end, whilst they have to say with the Psalmist, " My flesh and my heart faileth," they may adopt the language, " but God is the strength of my heart, and my portion forever,"

To our young friends particualarly, we would affectionately recommend a frequent recurrence to the first principles of our religious profession, which we consider to be those of pure Christianity. An establishment in these principles would, we believe, preserve us consistent both in faith and practice, and prevent our being improperly moved, by the varying notions which are so common in the present day. We long to impress upon you, dear your friends, the beauty and value of an early and of unreserved dedication of yourselves to God : cultivate a tender and enlightened conscience, and obey His law with all sincerity. Be faithful in maintaining your plainness of speech, behavior, and apparel.—Cherish those wholesome restraints of a guarded and religious education, of which the evident tendency is to keep you out of the way of evil.—We intreat you to avoid speculation and disputation on religious subjects ; for these will hinder instead of promoting your growth in grace. Let all your conversations on the sacred truths of the Gospel, be conducted under a due sense of their importance, and in the true fear of God. Carefully peruse the Holy Scriptures, and meditate upon them in private. Above all, delight yourselves in communion with God ; and lead a life of prayer : then will the blessed word of promise be yours, " I will be a Father unto you, and ye shall be my sons and daughters, saith the Lord Almighty."

It is satisfactory to observe, that with little exception, Friends continue to bear a faithful and Christian testimony against the payment of tithes and other ecclesiastical demands. The amount of distraints made upon the members of our Society for these claims, during the last year, as reported to this Meeting, is upwards of fourteen thousand two hundred pounds. May we ever bear in mind the ground of our testimony against the anti-christian imposition of tithes, and be steadfast and consistent in upholding our views of the spirituality and freedom of the ministry of the Gospel. We consider those views to be founded on the very nature of the Christian dispensation, as well as on the plain command of Christ, " Freely ye have received, freely give." Our testimony on this subject is purely Christian ; and hence it becomes highly important, that in all our proceedings for its maintenance, we should act as becometh our high profession, and by the meekness and consistency of our conduct, exalt it in the sight of those with whom we associate. We are much impressed with the belief that in this and other respects, there is more than a common call on the Christian for watchfulness. It is a time of unusual excitement, as relates both to religion and politics : while, therefore, we rejoice in the assured belief that the Most High ruleth in the kingdoms of men, and that the events which he ordains or permits, will ultimately promote the welfare of his children, we feel an earnest solicitude that Friends every where may be weaned from the spirit of a contentious and fluctuating world. " He that dwelleth in the secret place of the Most High, shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty."

To do all things in the name of Jesus, to obey the dictates of his Spirit, and humbly to follow his example, will be found our highest interest and our best security. Let us then, beloved friends, seek to be clothed with the meekness and gentleness of Christ ; walking circumspectly before God, and endeavoring to perform all our relative duties in his holy fear. And since " love is the fulfilling of the law," let us pray that we may be endued with charity, not only towards each other, but towards our fellow-men of every class and description.

Finally, may we be found faithful and obedient in suffering with Christ, and be made abundant partakers of his life-giving power. Thus shall we be prepared, at the solemn close of life, to unite with his redeemed followers in the triumphant song, " Unto Him that loved us and washed us from our sins in his own blood and hath made us kings and priests unto God and his Father ; to Him be glory and dominion for ever and ever. Amen."

Signed in and on behalf of the Meeting, by

JOSIAH FORSTER,

Clerk to the Meeting this Year.

THE WEEK.—It is good when the week is ended, to look back upon its business and its toils, and mark wherein we have failed of our duties, or come short of what we should have done.—The close of the week should be to each one of us like the close of our lives.—From the end of one week to the end of another, the mind can easily stretch onward, to the close of existence. It can sweep down the stream of time to the distant period when it will be entirely beyond human power to regulate human affairs. Saturday is the time for moral reflection.—When for the mercies of the week we are thankful, and when our past months, and years come up in succession before us—we see the vanity of our youthful days, and the vexations of manhood, and tremble at the approaching winter of age. It is then we should withdraw from the business and the cares of the world, and give a thought to our end, and to what we are to be hereafter.

The city of New Haven was visited on Tuesday last, by a tornado of uncommon violence, attended with lightning, rain and hail. The hail was unusually large, generally the size of filberts, but some were gathered of the magnitude of the largest walnuts. Houses were prostrated and trees uprooted by the violence of the Tornado.

It is said that every virtue has its counterpart, and so every vice. Take care that they do not change places.

FOREIGN NEWS.

BOSTON, AUGUST 25.

LATEST FROM EUROPE.

The ship Hercules, Capt. Rich, arrived yesterday from Liverpool, whence she sailed on the 15th July. By this arrival, London papers to the 13th, and Liverpool to the 14th July, have been received.

The ReformBill had passed to a second reading in the House of Commons The announcement of the majority of 136, elicited no demonstration of feeling.

The Ministers have announced their intention of going through with the English Reform Bill, previously to the discussion on the Irish and Scotch bills.

CHOLERA AT ST. PETERSBURG.—The cholera morbus has reached St. Petersburg. It made its appearance on the 26th June, and during the next five days 26 cases of sickness occurred.—The population of St Petersburg was in a state of complete consternation, and the imperial family had gone for greater safety to Petershoff. The disease is spreading rapidly in every direction, and the papers furnish us with frightful accounts of its ravages.

The cholera rages with increasing violence in most of the places it has reached. In Riga, on the 22d, there were 90 fresh cases, and 30 deaths; in Mittau, from the 18th of May till the 5th June, 180 persons were attacked, of whom 106 died; in Lemberg, from the 12th to the 23d ult there were 1,299 fresh cases; 311 had recovered and 600 died. According to the accounts from Berlin, the cholera has found its way to Cracow; and in Jassy (Moldavia) it was raging to a fearful extent; an average of 120 persons, in a population of 40,000, were dying daily.

BELGIUM.—The debates in Brussels on the ninth day concluded by a division of—For Prince Leopold, 126—Against him 70—majority in his favour 56.—A deputation left the city on the 11th.—They arrived in London on the evening of the 12th, and the morning of the next day waited upon the Prince, and were closeted with him some hours. It was arranged during the interview that his Royal Highness was to assume the style and title of "Leopold, Premier Roi des Belges." He was to set out for Brussels immediately.

FRANCE.—The latest Paris papers received at London state the Electoral returns were pouring in from the departments, and that the ministerial preponderance was rather acquiring than losing weight. It is stated authoritatively, that the King's opening speech to the Chambers will disclose new and more worthy views with respect to Poland.—The Paris Messager of the 11th July says, up to the present moment the elections of 354 Deputies have been announced;—of these the minister may reckon as his supporters 246.

Great numbers of French people of rank have lately gone to England; in consequence of which the government enforces the strictest search at the ports. 2,500,000 in silver coins of Henry V. have been struck in England, and circulated in La Vendee. Many arrests have taken place at Paris, and a number of the late corps of Swiss guards had received passports for the Province of Morbihan in the west and their pay in advance. It is supposed to be the intention of the Ministers to take some steps in favor of Poland.

A Spanish army of 20,000 men has been ordered to the frontiers of Portugal.

LONDON, JULY 12.

GREAT CONSPIRACY AT WARSAW!

The intelligence brought yesterday from Hamburgh is interesting. General Hurtig, General Satacki Colonel Stupecki, the Russian Chamberlain Fanshawe, M Lessell, and Madame Bazmon a Russian lady, are arrested, charged with a conspiracy to arm the Russian prisoners, to make a diversion and perhaps, deliver Warsaw into the hands of the enemy, in case of an attack. The escape of Rudiger is attributed to the treachery of Gen. Jankowski, who is implicated in the above conspiracy.—Gen Hurtig was in regular correspondence with a Russian Colonel Brendl, residing at Lemberg, in Galicia, and one Inzedie Leo, formerly an officer in the Polish army, was the agent between them. 3,000,000 of florins were discovered at the house of Lessel; and it would appear from the papers found in possession of the conspirators, that at Ostrolenka the Russians were put in possession of the whole of Skrzynecki's plans. The plot if not detected, might have been productive of most disastrous results to the Poles. One part of it was to arm the Russian prisoners from the arsenal to destroy the bridge of Praga, and thus cut off the troops stationed there from the relief of the Capital, while the Russians were to cross the Vistula, at Plock or Dobizga, and enter Warsaw in the absence of the troops.

There is still uncertainty as to the operations of Gielgud and Chlapowski if the Prussian accounts are to believed they have been defeated.

The Cholera has made its appearance in St Petersburgh, though it is said hitherto to have assumed a mild form.—The death of Grand Duke Constantine has taken place at Wittepek. Rumor, as usual in Russia, is busy in accounting for his death.

POLAND.—The Warsaw journals, which reach to the 29th June, contain a report from the General-in-chief, dated Warsaw, June 24, relative to the operations of the army against the corps of Rudiger in the governments of Podlachia and Jublon. On the 16th, the Polish head-quarters were at Siennica, where the General-in chief removed to second the operations of Generals Sanskowski and Rybinski, and to cover Warsaw.—On the 18th, Prybuotki took Zbuczyn and Siedlec, where he found large magasines, Jankowski, with a division of infantry, some cavalry under General Turno and General Romanno, were ordered to Korzk, in the government of Lublin, and then, with this improved force, to attack and defeat General Rudiger. Jankowski took Lukow on the 18th, and when he arrived at Gulow, near Adamo, he heard that the enemy had crossed over at Lysolyki, to the right bank of the Wieprz. Fearing that he might escape, he directed his whole corps into small detachments, and sent General Tarno to Lysolyki, near Budzieka.—Gen. Tarno, who had only 3000 men, met with the enemy at 3 o'clock in the morning of the 19th, but no assistance came; the enemy was alone 10.000 strong. The action continued till nine A. M. and both parties kept their positions. General Turno, on receiving positive orders, retreated to Czarna. His loss was 270 killed and wounded; besides this detachments of the enemy got between the scattered corps of General Jankowski, and took two of his aides-de-camp, who were the bearers of his orders, and the quarter-master, Major Bulryon, prisoners. On the same day, after the action fought fought by General Tarno, all Jankowski's force was assembled at Gulowska Wola; and Rudiger assembled his at Pizyloczna; after which, the former began his retreat to Warsaw, and the latter also retreated. Gens. Jankowske and Bakowski are to be tried by a court-marshal, for not having supported General Turna. The latter was the nearest to Turno, and, yet, did not go to help him, though he heard the cannonade.—The Warsaw State Gazette, however, says that Chrzanowski took the town of Lublin on the 20th, and joined Romanno on the 23d; and, that in the battle near Lublin, between Chrzanowski and Rudiger, the latter is said to have lost 6000 men, taken prisoners, and eight pieces of cannon.

The accounts from Lithuania are generally unfavorable. It appears that the cholera is becoming less malignant in its character at Danzig and Riga.

The Russians, were said to be within 12 miles (English) of Warsaw. The command has devolved upon General Paskewitsch, who is by birth a Pole.

Letters from Hamburg attribute the death of the Grand Duke Constantine to the cord rather then the cholera. It is remarkable that two of the prime persecutors of the Poles should be thus prematurely cut off. In these times of Philosophy and Infidelity, it would be considered superstitious even to hint at the agency of a retributive Providence.—Some of the Hamburg letters represent the Russian army as in a state of demoralization. They compare it to that of Napoleon, after the burning of Moscow. It is said, in short, to be totally devoid of anything like organization. If this news be true, the Berlin papers are doing more for the Russians than the Russians are doing for themselves.

LONDON, JULY 13.

The news of the cholera morbus having made its appearance at St. Petersburg, has had an extraordinary effect upon the Russian produce market.—The holders of tallow, and other Russian produce, will not, in fact name a price, though they were glad to take almost any offer two days ago. The great speculatators in tallow will, in consequence of the appearance of the cholera, make great profits, instead of sustaining, as they otherwise would have done, immense losses. Like cats, some people always fall on their feet.

The Duchess of Berri, with her child, her five franc pieces, and the two or three queer-looking persons who compose her suite, continues to be unsuccessful in attracting the least serious notice from the capital. Looking through these, papers, we are still unable to say whether the object of her journey is to set the Loire on fire, or to astonish the quiet folk on the Rhine by some new elaborations of the Russian gallopade. We should not be surprized, however, to find that she intends something serious after all; but it would be as ill-natured as unnecessary to prophesy the certain results.

PORTUGAL.—Letters to the 19th ult. have been received from Lisbon. At that period things appeared to wear pretty near the same aspect as the last accounts furnished us with. The French squadron were still off the rock of Lisbon making reprisals.

VIENNA, JUNE 28.—The Emperor is making a new levy of 80,000 men, which will make its effective force nearly 600,000. Those who know the Emperor's moderation, will not attribute this to personal ambition. At the Congress of Vienna he offered to restore Gallicia without indemnity, on condition that the other powers would consent to the entire independence of Poland.

NEW-ORLEANS, JULY 31.

Papers have been received from Mexico up to the 5th July, and letters from Tampico to the 23d. Congress was to have met on the 21st July, in extraordinary session. The greatest tranquillity reigned throughout the republic. A conducta had arrived at Tampico with $700,000, and 38 bars of silver—and two others were on their way with 100,000 dollars each.

WASHINGTON, AUGUST 20.

A company is about being formed in the city of Nashville, (Tenn.) with a capital of 40,000 dollars, for the purpose of establishing a cotton manufactory in that place. The Nashville editors speak very favorably of the undertaking, and express, with great confidence, the opinion that it will prove a source of liberal profit to those who engage in it.

PHILADELPHIA, AUGUST 23.

Destructive Fire.—On Sunday, about one o'clock, the services of our firemen were put in requisition to extinguish the fire in Shippen street, between 7th and 8th; and although every exertion was made to stop its progress, 22 dwelling houses were destroyed. At the same time, another fire took place in Pine, above 7th street, which only destroyed the roofs of two dwelling houses.

We learn with regret, that a western merchant had his pocket book stolen at one of our hotels, on Saturday, containing upwards of 1000 dollars

A sloop was towed to New-York on Tuesday with a load of peaches from Shrewsbury river. The whole cargo was soon disposed of at two dollars a basket, so that she was able to return the same day. The number of baskets being 400, the proceeds amounted to $800.

NEW-YORK, AUGUST 23.

FROM LISBON.—The Sarah, at this port, 41 days from Lisbon, left off the Tagus, a French squadron of 13 sail, including 6 line of battle ships. They had captured about 30 sail of merchantmen, a corvette, and a gun brig. It was reported on the 7th ult, that Don Miguel had dismissed all but one of his ministers, appointed new advisers, and was making active preparations to defend the City against an expected attack from the French. A French brig of war was going into the harbor on the 10th, supposed for the purpose of making new demands of the government. Lisbon was in a state of great ferment, most of the prisons were full, and arrests were daily making. An American squadron was looked for.

Extract of a letter dated Lisbon, 8th July.—"We are on the eve of great events for there at Curacaos six French 74's' four Frigates, corvettes and brigs of war, and other vessels which show no flags, and are tho't to be from the Azores. On our side there reigns great confusion, for there have been several appointments and no one will accept them. The Duke of Cadaval is out of office and Count de Barsto has charge of all the Departments. Sundry regiment have been sent down but the soldiers go off murmuring, and it is thought here they are not in the humor to fight, At Belem we have one 74, three frigates, sundry Corvettes and Brigs, in a very bad condition although brightly painted.'

BALLOON ACCENSION.—Agreeably to public notice, Mr. Charles F. Durant ascended from Castle Garden yesterday afternoon, in beautiful style. At ten minutes past five, he seated himself in his frail, venturous car, and having cut the cord, rose beautifully and majestically, to the height of about 3000 feet, when he began to descend. He then threw out a quantity of ballast, which so lightened the car that he again arose to the height of 3400 feet (which is (about two thirds of a mile,) at which point he seemed to hear a rumbling noise, said to have been often noticed by aeronauts, and occasioned probably by the rarefaction of the atmosphere.—This was at 33 minutes past 5. He then gradually descended to the water between Governor's Island and Long Island where he was taken in charge by boats, still remaining in his car and the balloon floating above him,) and towed back to the Garden. The distance between the points of ascent and descent, was a mile.

The Garden was well filled with spectators, and an immense multitude thronged the Battery, estimated at 20,000 or 30,000. This is the third ascent of Mr. Durant, who is a native of this city.

The Norfolk Herald of Monday says:—"We have all seen the sun of a dusky red or copper color; but who, until Saturday the 13th of this month, ever saw it clad in sky-blue and pea-green? On Saturday and yesterday morning, at its rising, it was of a light, but lively green; and as it ascended above the horizon, changed first to cerulean, then to silver white, and finally to pale yellow, when it became no longer permitted the intrusive gaze of the multitude. And so in its decline, about five o'clock in the afternoon, it appeared like a globe of silver through the thick haze which overspread the heavens, shorn of its beams—and gradually assumed the cerulean tint, from which it passed to a light green."

NEWPORT,

SATURDAY MORNING, AUGUST 27.

STATE ELECTION.

ON TUESDAY NEXT the Freemen of this State will give in their votes for Representatives to Congress, and members of the General Assembly.—Messrs. PEARCE and BURGES will no doubt be re-elected to Congress without opposition.

THE SUPREME COURT

Of this State, commenced its August term in this town on Tuesday morning last. At the opening of the Court, Chief Justice EDDY delivered an excellent charge to the Grand Jury.—The Court has been engaged during the week in the trial of civil causes, and will adjourn this day to Wednesday morning next.

FOREIGN NEWS.

By arrivals at New-York and Boston from Liverpool, London papers to July 13th have been received.—Extracts from them will be found under our foreign head.

The Grand Duke Constantine died at Witepsk, in June.

A very mischievous conspiracy was discovered at Warsaw, in which about 13,000 Russian prisoners were to be armed, and make a diversion to deliver the capital into the hands of the enemy in case of an attack. The conspiracy has failed altogether, and the people of the capital countinue quite enthusiastic.

The cholera has broken out at St. Petersburg, where the public are much alarmed, and the Imperial family have removed to Peterhoff.

A medical council has been held at St. Petersburg, which was attended by 40 physicians. Thirty-eight of them declared it to be their opinion, that the cholera is contagious, and only two maintained the contrary.

The Russian army were still on their own side of the Vistula.

STATE ELECTIONS.

KENTUCKY.—The returns from this State are unfavorable to the cause of Mr. Clay. It is now ascertained, that seven Jackson men, viz. Daniels, Johnson, Lecompte, Adair, Gaither, Wickliffe, Lyon, —and four Clay men, Marshall, Letcher, Allen, and Tompkins, are chosen Representatives to Congress. The result in Chilton's district is not yet ascertained.—The Legislature it is said, will have a Jackson majority of 2 in the Senate, and a small Clay majority in the House.

INDIANA.—Gen. Noble, the Clay candidate, is chosen Governor. Gen. J. M'Carty, the Adm. candidate, is chosen to Congress, in opposition to Mr. Test; the election of the other two members is not yet ascertained.

ILLINOIS.—Gen. Joseph Duncan, the Adm. candidate, is re-elected to Congress, by a large majority.

MISSOURI.—Mr. Pettis, (Adm.) is re-elected by a large maj. over Mr. Barton, the Clay candidate.

TENNESSEE.—Messrs. Bell, Blair, Standifer, and Polk, are re-elected; and Mr. Arnold, (Clay) in place of Mr. Lea, (J.) the present member; Gen. Hall elected in place of Gen. Desha; Col. Crochet, from the returns received, is supposed to be defeated by a large majority.

ALABAMA.—Mr. Lewis is re-elected by a large maj. over Gov. Murphy.

VIRGINIA.—R. H. Chinn is elected to Congress in opposition to Mr. Taliferro, the late member.

GEORGIA.—A meeting was recently held at Franklin College, Georgia, for the purpose of expressing opinions on the Constitutionality of the Tariff. Hon. Wm. H. Crawford was called to the chair. Eighteen gentlemen were elected to represent the State as delegates to the Free Trade Convention at Philadelphia. Among the resolutions passed, was the following:—

Resolved, As this meeting entertains the most lively devotion to the Union of the States, and to prevent a misunderstanding of its views, that our State Delegates be instructed to confine their discussions, and the result thereof, exclusively, to a removal of the oppression under which the country labors in consequence of the system aforesaid, and that they refrain from all deliberations tending, either directly or remotely, to the dismemberment of the Union.

SOUTH-CAROLINA.—A meeting has been held at Spartanburgh, (S. C.) at which Judge WM. SMITH, (late of the U. S. Senate) was invited to address the people, which he did at great length, having spoken it is said, four hours, against the doctrine of Nullification. Among other good resolutions, it was agreed by the meeting, to instruct the members of the Legislature to "oppose any proposition that may be made to nullify the Tariff or other law, passed by the Congress of the United States."

YEARLY EPISTLE.—We have inserted on our first page, the EPISTLE from the Yearly Meeting of Friends, held in London the present year.—It contains valuable moral lessons, and is conveyed to to the reader in mild, conciliating and correct language.

MR. RUSH.—The Lancaster (Penn.) Examiner of Saturday last, contains a letter from Mr. Rush, written in reply to one from a number of Anti-Masons of that county, inviting him to be a candidate for the Presidency. He declines the proffered honor, as will be seen by the following extract from his letter:—

"When I first gave to the public for what ever they might be worth, my sentiments on Freemasonry in May last, my aims were exclusively public. Personal advantage I did not seek, and least of all—office. In my letter on that occasion, and in a more recent one, I expressed myself with a zeal and fulness appropriate to the extraordinary importance of the truths which I believed myself to be maintaining on a momentous public question; the most so in my opinion, of any which has ever yet, as a home question, engaged the attention of the American people But when I did so, I could not but know that the time at which my anti-masonic fellow-citizens contemplated nominations for the two highest offices in the Union, was very near at hand, and that public opinion appeared to be still at large as to the individuals who might be selected. Hence, I must unequivocally be considered as out of view for either nomination, lest a doubt should be thrown upon my motives. The bare existence of such a doubt would be unworthy of a cause which, pure as any that ever arose in any country, ought not to be sullied by the breath of suspicion resting upon the person who is to have the high honor of being associated with it, as you would propose to associate me. Under a different train of circumstances, I would have acceded to such a distinction, though with a proper distrust of myself, as the proudest of my life; it being one of which names far higher than mine might be proud. But although I necessarily and unequivocally withdraw from it, I shall be thoroughly with you in your cause."

CLAIMS ON FRANCE.—The N. Y. Journal of Commerce of Tuesday last, publishes a letter dated Paris June 29th, which says the King was expected to return from his journey on the 3d of July, and might sign the treaty for the payment of these claims on the 4th. The letter writer gives Mr. Rives an undue credit over Mr. Galletin, because Mr. G. had the old, and Mr. R. the new Government to deal with. He says,

"I learn that we are to recive between 28 and 29 millions of francs, payable in six annual instalments. But what per centage on the claims will that sum pay? That is the question which so deeply interests the claimants, and yet is so difficult to solve. From what I can learn, it will be nearly or quite par,—of course without interest."

The N. Y. American of Tuesday, gives the following additional particulars relative to the arrangement recently concluded between Mr. Rives and the French Government, relative to these claims:—

"The arrangement, as we understand it—and, as the French bureaux are sometimes leaky we immagine our impressions are well founded—has taken the form of a treaty, which was expected to be executed and forwarded to Washington by the packet of July 10, now daily looked for. The sum stipulated to be paid is twenty five millions of francs, with a supplement of interest which will make the whole sum twenty-eight and a half millions—payable in six years. The claims of France upon the United States, including that of Beaumarchais, which has been estimated at five millions, are brought down to, and are to be liquidated for, one and a half millions of francs. France, likewise gives up her claim under the Louisiana treaty. A mutual reduction of duties on certain articles of export from each country is stipulated. On our Sea-island Cotton, the present duty in France is to be reduced one half- from 40 to 20 fr. the 100 kilogs. We in like manner are to reduce the duty upon French wines,—to 6 cents per gallon for red wine in casks to 10 cents for white wine in casks, and to 22 cents on both kinds in bottles."

COLOMBIA.—Recent accounts from that country intimate that Gen. Santander, who has the privilege now of returning home, will probably be the favorite candidate for the Presidency. The New York Journal of Commerce says:—

"While upon this subject we remark that Ex-President Mosquera who was some time since invited to return to Bogota and resume the functions of his office, has not yet left this city, and probably will not, in reference to the contemplated station In fact he would scarcely have time to arrive in the Colombian capital, before his term of office would expire; and he might very naturally feel some delicacy in throwing himself into a situation, which would be construed into a desire to continue at the head of the Government."

The Editor of the Washington Globe states, that he has never had any correspondence with Mr. Crawford in relation to that gentleman's controversy with Mr. Calhoun, or indeed on any other subject and has no right to suppose that he will select his paper as the vehicle of any communication he may choose to make to the public.

It appears by the Albany papers, that since the opening of the Mohawkan Railroad, the travellers on it have amounted to between three and four hundred a day. One journal says. "The income of this company from present appearances will be about $140,000 a year for passengers only, and the stock issued of being worth 70 per cent. advance, is worth 6 or 700 per cent.

VISITORS.—Among the great number of Strangers now visiting this Town, are the Baron de Steckelburg, Minister to the U. S. from Sweden; Mr. Bankhead, the British Charge de Affairs; the Brasilian and Mexican Charge de Affairs; Hon. Albert Gallatin, of New-York; Hon. James Buchanan, of Pennsylvania; Hon. E. Chambers, of Maryland &c.

COMMENCEMENT.—The Annual Commencement at Brown University, Providence, is on Wednesday week, the 6th of Sept.

EULOGY.—At Boston, on Thursday afternoon last, at the Old South Church, an Eulogy was delivered by the Hon. J Q. Adams, upon the character and services of the late Ex-President Monroe. The Eulogy is highly spoken of, and we learn is to be printed.

The Steam-Boat Boston, Capt. Wm. Comstock, arrived here on Tuesday morning in 12 hours and 42 minutes from New-York—being the shortest passage, by several minutes, yet performed by the Boats.

The Steam Packet Benj. Franklin, Capt. E. S. Bunker, (as will be seen by advertisement) will leave here To-morrow Afternoon for New-Bedford; on Monday she will make an excursion to Buzzard's Bay, and return here in the evening.

RAIL ROAD.—The Taunton (Mass.) Reporter states, that the full amount of stock for the Rail Road from Boston, through Taunton and Somerset, has been promptly subscribed.

MR. CALHOUN.—The National Gazette of Tuesday last, in noticing the Address of Mr. Calhoun, says:—

"We sincerely regret that the Vice President has sent forth this compound of old and new fallacies. Virginia, whose former jealousies and heresies, he flatters, will not travel with him to the extreme of Nullification. She has within her bosom, in Mr. Madison, a living oracle of the Constitution, to whose "sentiments" she will hearken as more impartial and authoritative than any which may come from the wayward school that now hails Mr. Calhoun as its adherent, if not chief.

REFORM.—The Washington Globe says, the President has "ordered to be reported to him for dismission, all persons, receiving salaries by virtue of stations conferred by the Executive, who shall take the insolvent oath to release themselves from debts, incurred since he came into office. The effect of this measure has been to induce those among his officers, who were disposed to, rid themselves of the insolvent law, to take another course. They now make compromises with their creditors, and by paying a part of their salaries to them, reserving enough to live on, they are gradually extricating themselves from debt. This we consider a very just reform, being beneficial to all parties."

The American Peace Society offers Five Hundred Dollars for the best, and $100 for the second best, Essay on the subject of a Congress of Nations for the amicable adjustment of national disputes, and for the promotion of universal peace without recourse to arms."—Manuscripts to be sent by the 1st of April, directed to D. Wheeler, New York, with the writer's name in a sealed paper.

A writer, in the Charleston Courier, under the signature of "Anti-Guillotine" accuses Gov. Hamilton, of having formerly opposed the doctrine of State rights, which he now advocates, and of having assisted to defeat a great plan for their security which was in the full tide of successful progress—and of having contributed to forge the fetters, if fetters they are, about which he now raves, and to break which he invokes all the malcons of party to bring their sledges.

Casualty.—On Saturday last, a son of Mr. True, Esq. eight or ten years of age, while playing on the roof of a four story brick house in Ann-street, fell over the railing on to the sidewalk, and was killed. This is the third instance of severe domestic affliction, where a son each time has been suddenly removed from the same parents, one was drowned, another was run over by a chaise and killed; and now a third is precipitated from a dizzy height and breathes no more.—Boston Traveller.

The Shakers of Harvard are building a barn which is probably larger than any structure of the kind on the continent. The dimensions we are informed, are one hundred and fifteen feet in length, and forty-five in width. It is four stories in height, and the calculation is to drive in on the upper floors from the hill-side and pitch the hay down, thus rendering much hard labor easy.—The cost of this barn when completed, is estimated at $3000. The Shakers of Canterbury, N. H. have a large barn, but it is excelled by the one at Harvard.—Bunker Hill Aurora.

One or two riots occurred between the laborers on the rail road at Newmarket, Md. and some negroes last week, which was finally quieted, although several persons were wounded, one or two it is thought mortally. Rev. Mr. M'Elroy, and C. W. Weaver, Esq. were chiefly instrumental in restoring peace among the rioters.

NULLIFICATION.—It was stated some time since that a merchant in Charleston had refused to pay his Custom House Bond, with the intention of bringing so far the Nullification doctrine into operation. The Charleston Courier and Patriot both state that they have been requested by several of the most respectable merchants to contradict the report as relates to that body; the refusal having been made by a professional gentleman, who never was engaged in commercial pursuits.

On Sunday, a man named Mortimer, a native of England, went into the cold bath at the foot of Warren street, N. Y. to bathe, in company with his son; after he had been there a few minutes, he complained that he felt unwell and desired his son to get out and dress himself; before the lad had done so, the father again complained of weakness and was carried out of the water. He died in about two minutes after.—N. Y. Gazette.

The Grand Chapter in State of Vermont have notified a meeting to take into consideration the question of a dissolution of the institution.

The half of the $30,000 prize in the Milledgeville Masonic Hall Lottery was drawn by two sisters, Sultana and Cynthia Brewer, of Monroe country, Georgia, the daughters of an indigent widow, who has several other children. The ticket by which these young ladies have acquired a handsome property, was bought with money earned by their own industry.

ITEMS OF NEWS.

RAND'S
MOST IMPROVED
Solar Microscope.

THE Public are respectfully informed, that this MICROSCOPE will be exhibited in the HALL adjoining the SAVINGS BANK for a Few Days Only.

By its aid, we may see in Vinegar living Eels from four to ten feet in length.—The farinaceous substance on the surface of figs and cheese, is discovered to be living insects, from eight inches to two feet in length. The common Flea appears larger than the largest Elephant; the Sand-Fly, which is one of the least of insects, is apparently twelve or fourteen feet in length; his wings being proportionably magnified show veins and sinews from the size of a man's finger down to that of a needle.

But that part of the exhibition, which shows most beautifully the works of nature, is the Chrystallisation of various salts. While some resemble a forest, with its thousand of branches shooting in every direction, others appear like myriads of shining lances glittering in the sun, with the utmost regularity.

The objects commonly exhibited in the Microscope, are the legs, wings and hair of various insects; the sting of a bee; the feathers of a moth, and skins of bugs, &c. Also, various kinds of wood cut across the grain, showing the pores pith, &c.

As the Microscope can only be exhibited when the weather is clear, it is recommended to those who may wish to embrace this opportunity of seeing one of the best instruments of the kind ever exhibited in the United States, to call as soon as convenient.

☞ TERMS.—For grown persons, 25 Cents each. Children half price. Companies of six persons, $1.—Ladies and Gentlemen who favor this Exhibition with their attendance, will be admitted at any future time, should they bring others who have not before attended, or at half price, if alone. B. B. HUSSEY.

Dr. Kittredge's VEGETABLE PULMONIC DROPS.

MR. DAM has recently received from one of the first families in this City, Dr Benjamin's Kittredge's Recipe for preparing his PULMONIC DROPS. As they were so well known in his practice, further comment is esteemed unnecessary. The reasons assigned for presenting this to him; were, that it might be continued for the benefit of the community. Several of the connexions of this family have been cured in a few weeks by using these invaluable Drops. They could not obtain the recipe from him on any other condition, than not to show it out of the family as long as he lived. Mr. Dam confidently offers these Drops to the public as the best article for all pulmonary complaints which has ever been produced —price 50 cents per bottle. For sale, wholesale and retail, by the Proprietor, 29 Prince-street, Boston, LEIDER DAM, who keeps constantly for sale the following articles of his own manufacture; —Cream of Amber, for removing Pimples and Freckles; Balm of Egypt, for Coughs, Asthma, Consumptions and Hooping Cough; Patten's Pile Electuary and Ointment, an infallible remedy for the Piles; Anderson's Eye Water, a certain cure for sore eyes; Galen's Ointment, and Galen's Restorative Elixir, a positive cure for all scrofulous complaints; Galen's Anti-Bilious Pills, the best article in the country to sweeten the breath, and free the stomach from bile; German Rheumatic Drops and Galen's Restorative Elixir, the only article yet known that would effectually cure the Rheumatism; Dr. Randall's Tooth Powder, the best article to preserve the teeth from decaying, & for whitening the teeth ever discovered; German Tooth-Ache Drops the first article that was ever tried with success in destroying the nerve of a tooth, and immediately stopping the tooth from aching; Dr. Mitchell's Corn Plaister, that has cured more corns than all other articles used; Dr. Mitchell's Chilblain Salve, that was never known to fail, when applied according to the directions on the box; Dr. Galen's Anti-Dyspeptic Pills which have cured more persons of that complaint, than all others ever offered to the public; Dr. Kittredge's Jaundice Bitters, a most excellent medicine for that complaint, now in [illegible]; Galen's Restorative Elixir, for weakness and general debility, has cured hundreds—it is one of the best medicines to cleanse the blood or humors that has ever been [illegible] and is good for many other complaints, [illegible] as others recommend for them [illegible]; Kittredge's Ointment for the Itch, and for many other purposes (see the label) is considered one of the most valuable articles in use; Dr. Jackson's [illegible] one of the best articles for Females in a weak and debilitated state of health that has ever been tried—it is used for the same purposes as the Aromatic Pills, and costs only [illegible]—it is also used with great success in diseases of Strangury and Gravel; [illegible] Worms has already [illegible] superior excellence [illegible] known for that complaint, as it [illegible] worms and the tape worm; [illegible] powders for the Liver complaint, is [illegible] known to have effectually cured [illegible]; Prussian Wash [illegible] on the hands—it entirely removes [illegible].

[illegible] wholesale and retail, in Newport, by Dr. R. R. HAZARD, near the State [illegible] for sale, by James Taylor, S. N. Vernon, and Dr. N. P. Moore, Thames-Street, Newport; J. Medical School, in Boston

THE Medical Lectures of Harvard University delivered in Boston, will be commenced in the Autumn, at the usual period, viz. on the third Wednesday in October. They will be continued four months.

This extension in the term of the Lectures has been thought necessary to afford time for such a course of instruction and demonstration, as is deemed by the Faculty to be requisite, under the advantages which have recently accrued to the School.

The Legislature of Massachusetts, with an enlightened liberality, which does honor to our age and country, have extended the protection of law to the cultivation of Anatomy within this Commonwealth. The advantages which will hence result to students resorting to this school will be sufficiently obvious. It will be the aim of the Professors to carry into effect the intentions of the Legislature, in such a manner as to evince at the same time their respect for the rights of humanity, and their interest in the promotion of the healing art.

The opportunities for practical instruction at the Massachusetts General Hospital continue undiminished.

The Course of Lectures will be,
On Anatomy & Surgery, by Dr. Warren.
On Chemistry, by Dr. Webster.
On Materia Medica, by Dr. Bigelow.
On Obstetrics and Medical Jurisprudence, by Dr. Channing.
On Theory and Practice of Physic and on Clinical Medicine, by Dr. Jackson.

GREAT PUBLIC SALE OF WATER POWER, VILLAGE LOTS, &c. AT Little Falls, on the Mohawk River.—The proprietors of the Water Power, Village Lots, Out Lots and Farms, at the Little Falls, on the Mohawk River, in the State of New-York, will offer the same for sale by Public Auction, at the village of Little Falls, on Thursday, the 29th day of September next, to commence at 12 o'clock at noon on that day, and be continued for the two succeeding days.

The village of Little Falls is 72 miles west of the city of Albany, and 22 miles east of Utica. It is the centre of one of the best grain and grazing districts in the state of New-York.

The Erie Canal, and Great Turnpike Road between Albany and Utica, pass through the Village.—The Village is large and well built, and contains an industrious and enterprising population.

The great hydraulic power, extending three-fourths of a mile on the falls of the Mohawk river at this place, can be used at all seasons of the year.

Materials for the erection of Factories. Mills, and Dwelling-Houses, such as stone, lime, sand, clay and timber, are on the premises in large quantities.

The village is supplied, by means of aqueducts, with an abundance of pure spring water. Several new streets have recently been made, and others will be opened previous to the day of sale.

No other place in the Union combines greater advantages for the economical and profitable operation of all kinds of machinery.

The terms of sale will be liberal, and accommodating to the purchasers.

THE LADY'S BOOK.—Published by L. A. GODEY & Co Philadelphia.—The Work is issued in numbers on the first of every month, printed on fine paper and entire new type.

Every number will contain a piece of music on copper plate engraving, and at least four wood cuts, and every three months, a coloured plate of the Fashions.

Subscription price Three Dollars per annum, payable in advance. A new volume having just commenced, persons wishing to subscribe are requested to call and leave their names.

The design of the Work has already been fully stated in the Prospectus, and may be easily gathered from an inspection of its contents. To furnish a constant supply of useful and elegant Literature, selected with a view to the gratification of all classes, but more particularly to the Ladies, has been, and will continue to be the leading objects of the Publishers; and from the evidences of success already obtained they have no reason to doubt the entire accomplishment of their purpose. Every accessible source from whence materials might be gathered, has been laid under contribution, without regard to expense. The best journals, both Foreign and American, are received at the earliest dates, and from these, careful selections of the best articles will continue to be made in such a way as will most likely combine novelty, variety, utility, and interest.

Original articles, translations of approved foreign productions, are furnished by skilful hands, and the poetical department is enriched by the contributions of Authors of distinguished reputation and merit. In a word, no means are left untried to make the Literary character of the work equal at least to any similar publication.

The Embellishments are of a very superior order. Engravings suited to the character of the work, executed by the most skilful artists, are bound up with each number, accompanied by appropriate descriptions of the various subjects.

Particular care has been taken to make the department of the Fashions and the Toilet inviting and attractive, to which end the newest style is explained and illustrated by copperplate engravings.

Of the mechanical execution of the work the Publishers do not hesitate to speak in terms of strong commendation. For neatness, accuracy, and beauty, they believe The Lady's Book will not suffer in comparison with any work in this country.

☞ Subscriptions for the above work are received at this Office

March 12, 1831.

DR. MOORE will attend to filling, filing, dressing, and various other operations on the TEETH on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays between the hours of 8 and 12 A. M. at his office, No. 93, Thames-Street.

Teeth at all times extracted in the most careful manner, and instruments are provided for removing the roots such as are too much decayed to admit of extraction in the ordinary mode, and for cutting them level with the jaw, when this operation is necessary.
